

Verbal Aptitude : $\Rightarrow$

1. Sentence completion
2. Sentence connection
3. Reading comprehension
4. Jumbled / Para jumbled.
5. Voice 6. Speech
7. Vocabulary 8. Idioms & phrases
9. Verbal reasoning $\rightarrow$ Analogies, syllogisms, conclusion based

Rules for the Usage of Nouns : $\Rightarrow$

1. Common noun : same class or category.
eg: She is a good girl.
2. Proper noun : The name of a person, place or thing.
Rabindras was a great poet.
3. Collective noun : Representing a group.
A herd of the cattle is grazing in the field.
4. Abstract noun : Not personified.
Kindness is a virtue.
5. Material noun : A metal or material.
The house is built of brick.

Bricks x Brick ✓

Hairs x Hair ✓

Informations x Information ✓

Grains x Grain ✓

Rules :-
un

1. A proper noun becomes a common noun when it is used in the plural form or when an article is placed before it.

There are 2 Hittlers in this house.

Kalidas is the Shakespeare of India.
common noun.

2. Collective noun takes singular verb.

The group consists of 5 members.

Exception: The committee have taken their seats.

3. Abstract noun as common noun by placing an article before it.

Sushma is a beauty.

4. Abstract noun as collective noun takes a plural verb.

Youth are the pillars of the nation.

5. Material noun representing a mass of the matter, plural form is not used. Their house is made of bricks and stones x
Their house is " " brick and stone ✓

6. Some nouns are used in singular only.

Advice, grain, hair, information.

Advice - noun Advise - verb.

5. The advice of the doctor is that I should not smoke.
The doctor advised me not to smoke.

Advised x

Some nouns are always used in plurals.

Scissors, blouses, trousers, earrings.

7. Apparently plural but actually singular in use.
News, physics, economics.

8. Always in plural
cattle, police, people.

9. When a plural noun represents the whole, verb must be in singular form.

Ten thousands rupees is a large amount.

10. Possessive noun (use of apostrophe) not used for inanimate objects.

Table's leg x

Leg of the table ✓

11. Inanimate objects representing beauty or grace etc, they are represented as feminine gender eg. Moon.

12. Inanimate objects representing strength, superiority, violence etc they are represented as male gender.

Sun, death, war.

13. Possessive case with the name of personified objects.

Death's icy hands.

14. When the noun is in the plural form, the possessive case follows.
eg: Girls' hostel
birds' nest

15. Possessive case: plural form without s eg: Men's club, women's day

16. Many words forming a noun, pronoun; possessive case is used for last word.

The PM of India's visit.

17. When two or more nouns are connected, the possessive case is used by adding to the last noun.

Amar and Anil's visit was successful.

18. Compound noun: possessive case is used for the last word.
Commander in chief's office.

Ex:

The strategies ^{str} that the company ^{str} — to sell its products ^{plural} — have to house marketing.

~~Uses~~, include use s, including use, includes used, includes

^{uncountable noun} scenery → singular advice — uncountable (never used in plural). work →

She gave me two — pieces of advice.

The committee has agreed on the decision.

My trousers are torn.

None of the equipment was damaged.

Rules for the usage of Pronouns :⇒

1. Use of "it" :-

To introduce a sentence.

eg: It is not certain that president will come.

To emphasise to the noun or pronoun.

It was ^{you} who started the argument.

for inanimate or impersonal

It rains

To show distance

It is not far to walk.

To indicate time.

It is ten o'clock now.

2. While confessing the fault, (expressing a negative idea), the sequence of the pronouns will be

1. you & he will be punished.

3. positive idea

You, he and I will be awarded.

4. Two singular nouns joined by and representing same person or thing then pronoun should be singular.

The account officer and treasurer should be careful in his work.

5. Two singular nouns joined by and preceded by each and every then pronoun should be in the singular form.

Every student and every teacher took his or her seat.

6. Singular noun and plural noun are combined by either... or / neither... nor then singular noun comes first in the sentence and pronoun must be in plural

Standard Either the mgr or his subordinates failed in their duties.

Sometimes Either mgr or plur noun
Neither mgr nor plur noun Max follow this

Either plur or mgr
Neither plu nor mgr

7. Personal pronouns (yours, ours, hers) are written without apostrophe.

Yours sincerely x Yours sincerely.

8. One is in general about people but never use pronoun as his/her, always use one's

One should do one's duties.

9. Relative pronoun: It must be placed to the noun as near as possible.

He is the manager who abused the clerk.

10. Relative pronoun in the objective case is generally omitted.

The student (whom) you wanted to punish is absent today.

11. Use of which?

for infants, objects, small animals etc.

This is the baby which was lost in the theatre.

(ii) for selection

Which of these watches do you want to purchase?

(iii) Refer to a sentence/situation

He was said to be drunk, which was not true.

12. Usage of that

(i) For persons, lifeless things etc (whether it is sing/plural)

This is the girl that failed in the exam.

The weather of Hyderabad is far better than that of Mumbai.

13. Either and Neither: two persons, objects or things etc.

Neither Mohan nor Sohan is intelligent.

14. Each other and one another

Each other - for 2 persons, place or things.

These 2 students love each other.

One another - more than 2 persons, places or things.

These 4 friends always agree with one another.

15. Anybody, everyone, everybody etc.

Must follow the masculine or feminine gender accordingly.

Everyone of the boys got his admit card.

Rules for usage of verb ⇒

1. When 2 subjects are joined by "and" the verb is plural.

My friend and his father are in Japan.

2. When 2 singular nouns are joined by "and" refer to the same person/thing, the verb is singular.

The district magistrate and Collector is on leave today.

3. If 2 different nouns express one idea, the verb should be in singular form.

Bread and milk is good for breakfast.

Rice and curry is my fav dish.

4. When 2 singular subjects are practically synonyms the verb should be in singular form.

His power and influence is on the rise.

Peace and prosperity is the need of the day.

5. If 2 singular subjects are preceded by "each" & "every" the verb should be in singular.

Every boy and girl was present in the class yesterday.

6. None/No

They can take either singular or plural verb depending on the noun which follows it.

None of the counterfeit ^(+ive) money has been found.

None of the students have finished the exam yet.

No example is relevant to this situation.

No examples are relevant to " " .

7. Majority:

Majority can be singular or plural.

If it is alone it is usually singular.

If it is followed by a plural noun, it is usually plural.

The majority believes that the situation is dramatic.

The majority of the students were protesting.

8. When "a lot of", "a great deal of", "plenty of", "most of" and "some of" when refer to number then plural verb is used.

A lot of people were present in the party.

When refer to an amount, the verb is singular.

A lot of work has to be completed before we leave.

9. Always singular

each, every, either, neither, anyone, someone, nobody, one

Everyone is responsible.

10. Always plural

few, many, several, both

Several are absent.

11. Sing / Plural (depends on noun)

all, some, none, most, half

All the money is lost.

All the students are present.

13. Either - Or / Neither - Nor → Verb agrees with the nearest subject.

Either the manager or the employees are responsible.

Neither the employees nor the manager is " "

14. Agreement with "A Number of / The Number of"

A number of candidates are present.

The number of " " is increasing.

15. Gerund as subject

A gerund (verb + ing) used as a subject is singular.

Smoking is injurious to health.

17. Conditionals :

If clause ... Main clause

If + Present ... Future

If + Past ... would + verb,

If + Past perfect ... would + have + past participle.

If he comes to the library, I will give him these books.

If she came to my house, I would give her your message.

If she had come to " ", I would have given her " ".

If + desired hypothetical condition.

If + were, irrespective of previous rules.

If I were a bird, I would fly to Australia.

Examples :-

* It is essential that every participant be present at the briefing.
subjunctive case → command, order, essential, not avoid then use "be".

* The manager as well as the team leaders ^{were} ~~were~~ confident.
just additional info, it doesn't effect the rule

* She acts as though she ^{single} ~~knows~~ ^{known} everything about the issue already (past)

* Neither of the two solutions ^{so far} ~~have~~ ^{has} proven effective in addressing the problem

* The CEO insisted that the report was submitted before the board meets next week. (subjunctive case) ~~be~~ ^{be}

* Tom ^{imitates} ~~imitates~~ his father in everything he does.

* The students, ^{plur} ~~accompanied~~ ^{plur} by their principal, ^{plur} ~~have~~ ^{plur} gone on a school trip.
additional info

* MS Dhoni ^{is} ~~are~~ also called Captain cool.

Rules for the usage of Adjectives: ⇒

Adjective :- modify intensity of noun/pronoun.
↳ some extra information.

Positive Degree → No other player in the team is as good as Prakash.

Comparative
↓
better → Prakash is better than any other player in the team.

Superlative → Prakash is the best player in the team.

"as --- as" and "so --- as" - used in positive deg.

"adj^o + er ... than" - comparative

"the + adjective in superlative form" - sup

Rules :-

1. When selection of the 2 persons or things of the same kind.
the better of

She is the better of the two sisters.

2. When 2 qualities are compared in the same person or thing

Comparative degree is formed by using more instead of 'r or er'

Rekha is more wise than intelligent. (not wiser)

3. Any other

Gold is more precious than any other metal.

4. Some words cannot be used in comparative & superlative forms

Eg. interior, exterior, ulterior, major, minor etc.

This is interior to that.

5. Some comparative adj are followed by "to" not by "than".

eg: superior, senior, junior, interior, prior, prefer, posterior, anterior etc.

6. Some adj not used with comparative & superlative degree.

eg: empty, excellent, circular, extreme, complete, perfect, final, last, unique, round, square, triangular, universal etc.

7. Some adj can be used only in positive & superlative degree.

top --- topmost

eastern --- easternmost.

8. Preferable is not used with more.

Preferable is followed by "to".

This is preferable to that.

9. Two adj which refer to the same noun or pronoun must be in the same degree of comparison.

Gandhi ji is the noblest and wisest of all national leaders.

10. Some adj when preceded by "the", they become nouns in plural, hence plural verb is used with them.

eg: rich, poor, needy, aged, blind, dead, meek, wicked.

The rich usually hate the poor.

11. Farther --- Further

farther --- distance --- significant distance

further --- in addition to something.

12. Many, a great many, a good many Plural noun and plural verb.

Eg: A great many people died in the accident.
My brother has a good many friends.

13. Many + a + singular noun + singular verb.
Many a scientist is attending the meeting.

14. Few, little, much, many.

- ° Few is used with plural noun (countable)

- ° Little " " singular non countable nouns (uncountable).

- ° Without articles few & little usually have '-ve' meaning.

- ° With articles few & little are positive in meaning.

Eg: There are few books on Machines in the library.

There are a few eggs in the basket.

- ° Fewer & less: Fewer is used with countable nouns & less before uncountable nouns.

- ° Many & much: Many is used for countable nouns & much is used for uncountable nouns.

15. Too, very, enough

- ° Very means high degree but not impossibility.

- ° Too suggests impossibility.

- ° Enough suggests possibility/sufficient degree.

few - negative

a few - +ve, atleast

the few - +ve, specific.

16. Hardly, scarcely, rarely, seldom, without & only.

- Scarcely & hardly are followed by when and not then.

- No sooner is followed by "than".

- No sooner + had + subj + Past Participle + past tense

→ No sooner had I reached the station than the train left.

- No sooner + did + subj + present tense + past tense

- No sooner + do/does + sub + V_{base} + V_{base} + s/es.

1. He is ^{such an} honest man, few people doubt his integrity.

2. These flowers smell sweetly and are sold at high prices in the market.

senses the
we use adj not adverb. sweet

Rules for the Usage of Adverbs ⇒

Adverb: Modifies the intensity of verb, adverb, adj.
Adverb answer how, when, where, how often, to what extent.

• He runs ^{adv modifying} fast (verb).

• She is ^{adv} very ^{adj} intelligent (adjective).

• He spoke ^{adv} quite ^{adv} confidently. ✓

1. Adv must be placed as near as possible to the word it modifies.

She ^{adv} just wants to take one class. ✗

She wants to take just one class. ✓

2. When a verb consist of an auxiliary & a main verb then Adv is placed between them.

I have told him often not to come late. ✗

I have often told him not to come late. ✓

3. The word only should be placed before the word it modifies.

I only solved 2 problems. ✗ I solved only 2 problems. ✓

4. When used as Adverb, some words have a different meaning.

is hard -- diligently

adv Hardly -- scarcely, barely

5. Adj as Adv.

Adj	Adv
slow	slowly
careful	carefully
beautiful	beautifully

She sings beautifully x she sings beautifully ✓

But some words remain same.

fast, hard, late, early.

He works hardly x He works hard.

6. Adverbs of Frequency (Fixed position)

Adv	Position
always, usually	before main verb
often	after auxiliary verb

She often visits us.

she is often late.

7. No Adverb between verb & object.

He speaks fluently English x.

He speaks English fluently ✓

8. Adverbs endly with -ly (exceptions).

Not all -ly words are adverbs.

He behaved friendly x He behaved in a friendly manner. ✓

word	category
friendly	adj
lovely	"
cowardly	"

* He explained the concept so ^{adv} clearly that even beginners follow it.

SO + adverb + that

* Only ^{those} students who had registered were allowed to appear for the exam.

* She performed much ^{better} in the interview than anyone had expected.

* Rarely do we ^{witness} such clarity of thought in technical presentations.

Hardly

Rarely

Barely

Scarcely

Under no circumstances

→ Inversion

sub + verb X

verb + sub

* The problem was too difficult to be solved without computational tools.

* He spoke so ^{settly} during the seminar ^(impossibility) that many participants failed to hear him.

* She is sufficiently competent to handle the responsibility independently.

* The engineer explained the process ^{verb} clearly to the junior staff.

Adv + V + Adv + MV

or

AV + Adv

Adv + MV

Frugal → a person who spend money wisely.

X

Spended sh'tt → spend money mindlessly

so --- that

so --- as

Prepositions : ⇒

A preposition shows the relation of a noun/pronoun with another word in the sentence (place, time, direction, cause, manner).

Ex: The book is on the table

1. Some words with prepositions required gerund (v-ing) after them.

Retrain from hurting

prevent from working

Tired of writing

Fond of playing

pretext for delaying

succeed in doing

Abstain from drinking

Aid at doing

Best up on doing

Adverse to playing

Expert in inventing

Desist from talking

Capable of playing

Insist on going

2. In & within

• In refers to end of a period of time usually in future.

He will return in a month.

• Within means before the end of the period of time.

He will return within a month.

3. In & Into

• In indicates rest or motion inside anything.

She is in the garden. (she is inside the garden).

• Into means motion towards the inside of anything.

He walked into the garden. (crossing the boundary).

4. On is used

• In speaking of things in rest. He sat on a big stone.

• Before the names of days and dates

On Friday, On the 2nd of August

• To denote support and concern.

He wrote books on philosophy.

5. Upon is used in speaking of things in motion.

The tigers sprang upon the goat.

6. Beside means 'by the side of'

Besides means 'in addition to'.

7. B/w & Among

B/w is used for 2 persons / things.

Among " for more than 2 " " .

8. Use of IN, ON, AT (Place)

IN

Large areas

In India, In Delhi

ON

Surface

on the table, on the wall

AT

Point place

at the door, at the station

9. Use of IN, ON, AT (Time)

IN

Long period

In 2025, In July

ON

specific day / date

on Monday, on 15th Aug

AT

Exact time

at 5 PM, at noon

"At night" = Generally, every night, anytime (habit, regularly happening)

"In night" = During that specific night, in the darkness. (happens once)

I heard a strange noise in the night. (During that specific night).

He woke up in the night to get a drink of water. (During that particular night).

10. Use of BY, WITH, USING (Means/Instrument):

By - method/agent

He went by bus.

With - Instrument

He cut it with a knife.

Using - process

The problem was solved using MATLAB.

11. Preposition after comparative degree.

Comparative adjectives takes 'than', but prepositions changes meaning.

Senior to superior to

junior to

He is senior to me.

12. No preposition before certain words.

Don't use prepo before:

Home

Yesterday/ today/ tomorrow.

Aboard

Up stairs/ downstairs

He went home.

13. Use of SINCE & FOR

since - point of time

since 2020

for - period of time

for 5 years

14. Agree

Agree to → proposal/plan

Agree with → person/opinion

I agree with you.

She agreed to the proposal.

15. Prepositions in Passive voice.

Verb's preposition must be retained.

He was laughed at.

16. Prep at the end (Allowed in modern English)

This is the book I was looking for.

Whom are you talking to?

17. Angry with him (not on)

Good ~~at~~ ⁱⁿ maths.

Interested ~~on~~ ⁱⁿ

Obsessed ~~about~~ ^{with} no real.

Order ~~for~~ ^{of} tea

→ look into → inspect

→ She prides herself ~~on~~ ⁱⁿ her academic achievements.

→ annoyed at

→ account for phrase
consisted of

Conjunction $\Rightarrow$ Joins words, phrases or clauses.

Types

Coordinating - and, but or nor, yet, so

subordinating - because, although, if, when, unless etc

Correlative - both - and, either - or, neither - nor, not only - but also

1. Coordinating Conj Rules

Joined elements must be grammatically parallel.

He is intelligent and works hard. x

He is intelligent and hard working. ✓

2. But vs However $\rightarrow$ conjunctive adverb (needs punctuation) $\downarrow$
conj(= one sentence) He was tired, however, he continued.
 He " but he continued.

3. Because / Although / Though (No Double conj)

Although he was poor but he was honest. x

Although he was poor, he was honest. ✓

Because he was late, he missed the train. ✓

4. Use of AND

Adds similar ideas.

can simply result, sequence, surprise
Work hard and you will succeed.

5. Use of OR

choice, alternative

often used with else, otherwise
Hurry up or you will miss the train.

7. Use of NOR

used after negative clause.
Requires inversion.

He did not call me nor he texted me. ✗

He did not call me, nor did he text me. ✓

8. Either - or / Neither - nor (verb agreement rule)

Verb agrees with the nearest subject.

Either the teacher or the students are responsible.

Neither the students nor the teacher is responsible.

Either clause 1 or clause 2
Neither 1 nor 2

standard grammar

→ clause 1 → sub (sing)

clause 2 → sub (plur)

It can be reverse also but it is the most standard.

9. As / since / Because

because — strong reason

since — known "

as — weak "

10. Although / Though / Even Though

All mean contrast, but:

Even Though → strongest emphasis

Even Though he tried hard, he failed.

11. While

contrast

He is rich while her brother is poor.

time

While I was reading, he slept.

12. Unless

Means if... not

Unless you work hard, you will fail.

(Do not use double negative)

13. Lest (formal)

Means so that... not

Takes should + verb.

Lest he fails. X Lest he should fail. ✓

14. so that vs In order that

Both express purpose.

Often followed by may/might/can.

He spoke loudly so that everyone could hear.

15. Than vs As (comparison)

He is senior to me.

He is as good as his brother.

16. That after certain verbs.

Used after:

insist, suggest, recommend, demand, propose

He suggested that we should leave early.

17. No conj after question words.

I don't know why he left. ✓

Interjection:- used to express sudden feeling / reaction / emotion.

Oh!, Now!, Hey! Alas! Ouch!

Alas → sadness / pity

Ah → realization / surprise

Eh → to enquire / ask for something

Dear → pity / surprise

Hey → surprise / call for attention

Hurray → joy

Oh → pain / surprise

Ouch → pain

Phew → relief, exhaustion, disgust

Yippe → joy.

1. When a short interjection is used in the beginning of a sentence, it should be followed by a comma.

Oh, I didn't see you there.

Well, let's start the meeting.

2. When an interjection forms a sentence by itself, it can be followed by a full stop, a question mark or an exclamation mark.

3. When an interjection is used in the middle of a sentence, the interjection has to be preceded & followed by a comma.

Primary Interjection:- word / sound that can only be used as an interjection.

It does not have alternative meanings & can't function as another part of a speech.

Ugh! That's disgusting.

Secondary Interj:-

word that is typically used as another part of speech (such as a noun, verb or adj) that can also be used as an Interj.

Ex: Sec Int in a sentence

Goodness! That was a close one.

Awesome! Do that trick again.

Shoot! My exam has been cancelled.

Volitive Int:-

used to give a command/request.

Shh! I can't focus when u are singing.

Plst. Pass me an eraser.

Articles

a, an, the

Define
'the'
specific

Indefinite
a, an

a, an
before countable nouns.

Uses of "a"

Before any common nouns beginning with a consonant & also consonant sound words.

- a European comp. org
- a one pers. corp

Uses of "an" ?

rowy sounds. an umbrella, an hour, an honourable.

Uses of ⁴The :-

1. Names of rivers, canals, oceans, seas, straits, the group of mountains, points on the globe, famous buildings.

eg: The Ganga, The Pacific, The Black Sea, The Himalayas

2. When a compass direction immediately follows a preposition.

The most colorful states lie in the western part of the country.

3. The names of the nationals, sectors, communities.

Gr The English, The French, The Indians, The rich, The poor, The Hindus.

The Spikes believe in selfless service

4. Languages - don't use "the" when referring to names of languages.

My son is learning French.

Use 'the' if the word language immediately follows the name of the language.

The Korean language is very different from Japanese.

5. The names of scriptures & news papers.

The Ramayana, The Gita, The TOI

6. The names of states & countries with descriptive names or political to them, country which is a group of islands.

The USA, The UK, The Philippines, The Bahamas, The Maldives

7. History - Names of wars, battles, revolutions, treaties, alliances, agreements, reports, organisations (Exception world war I, II)

The French revolution, The NATO

8. Periods of Time

The Stone age, The 1990s, The 19th century.

9. Ordinals & sequence.

the second floor, the next.

Exception: i) When the sequence words mean steps to do something.

First box water, next add some coffee powder.

ii) When ordinals are used to refer to the names of awards/nations.

Winning first prize at his event.

10. Groups (Families, Bands, Sports Team).

The Guptas are fun to be with.

11. Animals (when referring to the entire breed)

The Labrador has a dense, long coat.

12. While using proper nouns as common nouns.

Bengaluru is the Silicon valley of Asia

13. The superlative Degree

He is the best doctor in the town.

14. Comparative degree of adjective when you mean selection.

Ram is the faster one of the 2 athletes / Ram is faster than the 2 boys.

15. Comparative degree of adj when u mean to convey a sense of proportion.

The higher you go, the cooler you feel.

16 If a subject or things are thought of as one single unit, use the article before first subject only.

The husband and wife are invited to the party.

29 Bride & groom, bacon and eggs, cup and saucer.

30 When referring to a single thing/person

The famous surgeon and the dancer, Billy, is my sister

Omission of Articles : $\Rightarrow$

1. Before proper nouns.

New Delhi is the capital of India.

2. Before abstract nouns when we are talking in general honesty, truth, love, courage, happiness, scenery etc.

3. Love is precious. / The love of mother is precious (specific love).

3. Before the names of metals. (Gold, silver, Iron etc).

Iron is used in making steel. / The Iron of ~~oyster~~ is used in making steel.

4. Before the names of food grains (In general)

Rice is an important part of an Indian meal. / The rice of UP is exported in a large quantity to Europe (specific)

5. Before the names of meals, when talking in general.

Lita was badly hurt when the news arrived.

The lunch will be held at the Leela.

6. Before the names of games.

Cricket is a popular game in India.

7. Before the names of the subjects in general terms.

I love Biology.

8. Before languages.

9. Before individual lakes, mountains, islands & canyons.

Mount Everest is the highest mountain in the world.

The Himalayas is the highest mountain range in the world.

10. Names of the religions.

Hinduism, Sikhism, Jainism, Christianity etc.

11. Temple, Church, Jail, Hospital, School, College - when their sole purpose is ^{common} clear.

The molester was taken to Jail.

A group of ladies went to the temple to see the new construction.

12. Before collective nouns (used in general sense)

Ex: Man, Cattle, Society, Company.

Man is a beautiful creation of God.

13. Names of seasons, days, months, festivals.

Spring is the most colorful season of the year.

14. Before sunrise, sunset / dawn / dusk

I need to reach home before sunset.

I'll come back in the evening.

Speech ⇒

1. Present Tense Rules

A. Present Simple (facts, habits, routines)

S + V₁ + s/es.

Use cases: universal facts, daily habits, timetables, instructions.

B. Present continuous (action happening now)

S + am/is/are + V₁-ing + Ø.

Use cases: happening now, temporary situations, planned near-future.
We are meeting tomorrow.

C. Present Perfect (past action with present effect)

S + has/have + V₃. I have finished my work. She has lost her keys.

Use cases:

action completed just now

experience

life events without time reference.

D. Present Perfect Continuous (started in past, still continuing)

S + has/have + been + V₁-ing + Ø.

She has been studying for 3 hours.

2. Past Tense

A. Simple Past Tense

Used to describe an action that started & finished in the past.

$S + V_2 + O$ She wrote a letter.

B. Past continuous

Ongoing past action, interrupted actions.

$S + was/were + V_1-ing + O$

She was cooking dinner.

C. Past Perfect

$S + had + V_3 + O$

use when 2 past actions occur

earlier past $\rightarrow$ past perfect

later past $\rightarrow$ simple past.

D. Past Part continuous

$S + had been + V_1-ing$

duration before another past event

They had been working for hours before the boss arrived.

3. Future Tense

A. Simple Future (used for promises, decisions at moment, predictions)

$S + will/shall + V_1 + O$ I will call you.

B. Future Continuous (Ongoing future action)

S + will be + V₁ -ing + O.

I will be travelling tomorrow.

C. Future Perfect (shows completion before a specific future time).

S + will have + V₃ + O. By next week, I will have completed the project.

D. Future Perfect Continuous

Shows duration until future time.

S + will have been + V₁ -ing + O.

By 5 pm, she will have been studying for 6 hours.

GOLDEN RULES:-

1. NO future after "when, after, before, until, as soon as".

I will call you when I will reach x.

I will call you when I reach.

1. Assertive (statement) sentences

- Use that

- No question mark

- Change tense, pronoun, time words

She said, "I will help you".

she said that he would help me.

2. Interrogative sentences-

- Remove question form

- Use if/whether (~~for~~ yes/no questions)

- No question mark

- Reporting verb → asked, enquired.

He said, "Are you ready?"

He asked if I was ready.

WH-questions

- Do not use if/whether

Ex. She said, "Where are you going?"

She asked where I was going.

3. Imperative (Command/Request/Advice)

- Remove subject

- Reporting verbs: ordered, requested, advised, warned.

- Use to + verb

He said, "Close the door".

He ordered me to close the door.

She said, "Don't touch the wire."

She warned me not to touch the wire.

4. Exclamatory Sentence.

- Remove exclamation

- RV: exclaimed, exclaimed with joy/sorrow

He said, "What a beautiful day!"

He exclaimed that it was a beautiful day.

5. Modal Verb Changes

will - would

shall - should

can - could

may - might

must - had to

He said, "I must leave now!"

He said that he had to leave then.

6. Special & Exception Rules.

Universal truths - No tense change

The teacher said, "Water boils at 100°C "

The teacher said that water boils at 100°C .

Conditional sentences

He said, "If it rains, we will cancel the trip."

He said that if it rained, they would " ".

"Let" sentences.

- suggestion - suggested that we should.

- Permission - allowed.

He said, "Let us start the meeting."

He suggested that we should start " ".

Yes/No answers

She said, "Yes".

She replied in the affirmative.

She said, "No".

She replied in the negative.

eg: 1. She said, "Do you know the answer?"

She asked whether I knew the answer.

Voice $\Rightarrow$

Active Voice - The subject performs the action.

Passive - The subject receives the action.

1. Basic conversion formula.

$A \rightarrow P$

$S + V + O$

$O + \text{appropriate form of be} + V_3 + \text{by} + S$.

2. Obj becomes sub (vice-versa)

3. Use of "by whom" in questions.

Who wrote this code?

By whom was this code written?

4. Only transitive verbs can be made passive (verbs that take an obj)

write, make, help, build, sleep, arrive, die, happen x

5. Omission of "by + agent"

The agent is omitted when:

• unknown, unimportant, obvious.

The road was repaired.
(Not necessary to say by workers).

6. Pronoun changes.

I - me

he - him

she - her

they - them

we - us

7. Imperative sentences.

Let + obj + be + V₃.

Close the door.

Let the door be closed.

8. Sentences with 2 obj.

Other obj can become subj.

He gave me a book.

I was given a book by him.

A book was given to me by him.

9. Passive with modal verbs.

She can solve the problem.

The problem can be solved.

10. Passive of questions.

Did he finish the work?

Was the work finished by him?

11. Sentences with prepositions.

The prepositions stay at the end.

They laughed at him. He was laughed at.

12. Verbs of perception (see, hear, make, help)

The teacher made him write.

He was made to write by the teacher.

13. Reporting verbs (say, believe, think)

Two passive structures possible.

People say that he is honest.

✓ It is said that he is honest.

✓ He is said to be honest.

14. Passive with infinitives (to + verb)

He expects me to complete the work.

I am expected to " " .